Dear Supervisor Bonilla:

On behalf of the California Issues Forum, thank you for participating in our panel discussion regarding the state's fuel production challenges at The Claremont Hotel in Berkeley on August 5. We greatly appreciate your time and insight into the public policy challenges associated with ensuring that Californians have access to the fuels they need daily while also protecting the environment and creating new jobs.

Pursuant to new regulations promulgated by the FPPC, the cost of meals and lodging associated with speeches or panel discussions held in the state are now reportable on your Form 700 annually, but remain not subject to gift limits.

Accordingly, we are providing you with the following information for you to report on your Form 700's Schedule E.

Name of Source: California Issues Forum
Address: 1717 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95811
Business Activity: Nonprofit organization
Date: August 5, 2010
Amount: $329.59
Type of Payment: Gift
Description: Food/lodging provided for panel discussion regarding the state's fuel production needs and challenges

Please note that the California Issues Forum, a 501(c)(4) nonprofit organization, is not required to separately disclose the details of this event or the value of the gift.

Again, thank you for your participation.

Sincerely,

(c)(1)
